ABSTRACT

Targeted especially for Indian adult educators, the 1982 resource directory identifies: Indian Adult Education projects and commercial businesses who develop curriculum materials for adult students; sources for obtaining or providing information for and about Indian adult education projects at the local, state, or federal levels; and Indian adult educators and education programs available for information sharing. Listed by title, citations of curriculum materials (52) include grade level, content description, and ordering information. Names of individuals and/or projects, addresses and telephone numbers are provided for adult education associations (10), Indian organizations (35), departments of the Federal Government (41), advisory councils (3), and state departments of adult education (50). Current members of Congress (Senators and Representatives), their telephone numbers, and appointed Indian Affairs Staff Assistants are also provided. A listing of individuals as Indian adult education resources (18) concludes the directory by providing their address, telephone number, a short biography, and their areas of expertise. (ERB)

INTRODUCTION

For several years now, the National Indian Adult Education Association (NIAEA) has discussed the idea of a Resource Directory targeted especially for Indian Adult Educators. On April 29-May 1, 1981 Native American Research Institute (NARI) held an Indian Adult Education workshop in Atlanta, Georgia which brought that idea one step closer to realization. Workshop sessions in Atlanta included "Developing a Resource Directory of Indian Adult Educators" and "Dissemination Clearinghouse: Developing a Clearinghouse of Grantee Developed Materials" (an idea which has been subsequently modified and incorporated into the Resource Directory). Through grantee recommendations offered at that workshop and particularly with the help of Nell Rogers, former Director of the Choctaw Adult Education Program and Reva Crawford, Membership Chairperson of NIAEA, NARI was able to produce a first draft of the Resource Directory.

The rough draft was subsequently presented at the National Indian Adult Education Workshop held in Albuquerque, New Mexico on November 19-20, 1981. There, Adult Educators from around the country were given the opportunity to contribute additional entries and/or submit their names for the portion of the Directory entitled "Individuals Listing". The final Directory contains information which falls into the following three categories:

- 1) Curriculum materials developed by individual projects and commercially,
- 2) Sources for obtaining or providing information for and about Indian Adult Education projects at the local, state, or federal levels, and
- 3) Indian Adult Educators and Education programs available for information sharing.

We would like to express our appreciation to the Indian Adult Educators who have assisted us in our efforts to compile the information contained in this Directory. Due to the nature of the information contained therein, it is impossible to maintain definitive listings. To assist us in updating the publication, we are inviting Indian Adult Educators to send any corrections, additions, deletions, and/or changes to the following address:
